

Name: _____ Date: _____

Compound Sentences Exercise

Connect each pair of the following simple sentences to make compound sentences. Use the conjunctions provided.

1. He loves to read. She enjoys playing sports. (but)

2. I love chocolate. I rarely eat it. (yet)

3. We can stay home and watch a movie. We can go out for dinner. (or)

4. She studied hard for the exam. She got a good grade. (so)

5. He loves to explore new places. He always finds comfort in his hometown. (yet)

6. The movie was really bad. We left early. (so)

7. I finished my chores. Now I can relax. (so)

8. She was nervous about the presentation. She did a great job. (but)

9. He couldn't go swimming. It had started to rain. (for)

10. I woke up early. I made breakfast for everyone. (and)
